REPORT

Name of the Program : GPAT Exam preparation and development of skills webinar
Date : 17-02-2025
Resource person details : Dr. Peeyush Jaiswal,
Eminent speaker
GPAT Discussion Center,
Bilaspur,
Contact no: 6265846984

On 17th February 2025, Aditya Pharmacy College organized an insightful webinar titled “GPAT Exam Preparation and Development of Skills” as part of its higher education awareness initiatives. The session aimed to guide pharmacy students in effectively preparing for the Graduate Pharmacy Aptitude Test (GPAT) and developing essential academic and analytical skills to excel in competitive exams.

The session was conducted by Dr. Peeyush Jaiswal, an eminent speaker from the GPAT Discussion Center, Bilaspur. With his extensive experience in GPAT training and student mentorship, Dr. Jaiswal delivered a comprehensive and motivating talk. He covered important strategies for effective preparation, including time management, conceptual clarity, subject-wise focus areas, and smart revision techniques.

Dr. Jaiswal also emphasized the significance of consistent practice through mock tests and the importance of aligning preparation methods with recent trends in GPAT question patterns. He shared practical tips for overcoming exam stress and building confidence.

As an engaging conclusion to the session, a quiz was conducted to assess students' understanding and reinforce key concepts discussed during the webinar. Students actively participated and appreciated the interactive format. The session proved to be highly beneficial in boosting students' motivation and providing them with a structured roadmap for GPAT success. 118 students of III B.Pharm have attended the session. Ms. Ch. L. Madhavi, the session coordinator, extended heartfelt thanks to Dr. Peeyush Jaiswal for his valuable contribution and expert guidance.

21/04/2025

REPORT

Aditya Pharmacy College organized coaching for competitive exams from 10/06/2024 to 12/04/2025. The course was specially designed for III and IV B. Pharmacy students who are preparing for GPAT/PGECET 2025, with the objective of training students in examination strategy, subject mastery, and preparation techniques.

The program consisted of weekly online GPAT/PGECET model tests conducted in "Moodle", followed by doubt clarification and guidance by the respective subject faculty. The enrolled students of III and IV B. Pharmacy were provided with a schedule mapped to the GPAT/PGECET-2025 syllabus, and tests were conducted during the hours assigned in their respective timetables across III-I, IV-I, III-II, and IV-II semesters.

The major objectives of the programme were:

- To create awareness and readiness for GPAT/PGECET examinations.
- To provide systematic guidance and subject-wise mentoring to strengthen conceptual knowledge.
- To enhance students' ability to manage time and accuracy during online exams.
- To ensure complete syllabus coverage with emphasis on high-yield topics.
- To motivate students to develop confidence and exam-oriented skills.

The programme also aimed at bridging classroom learning with competitive exam strategies and ensuring maximum student participation through regular evaluation and counseling.

Mrs. V.Prasanna, in charge of the coaching for competitive exams, and Mrs. V. Swaroopa, along with other faculty members, actively encouraged and guided the students, ensuring effective conduct of the model exams and regular monitoring of progress.
